VIRTUAL SUMMER WORKSHOPS FOR MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

Leaders 4SC is a set of four week-long workshops for middle school students on leadership, communication, decision-making, and advocacy. Our goal is to train the next generation of civic leaders: members of a community who actively participate in society.

STUDENTS MAY ATTEND 1, 2, 3, OR ALL 4 WEEKS:

WRITING WEEK 1

July 6th - 10th

WRITING WEEK 2

July 20th - 24th

SPEAKING WEEK 1

July 13th - 17th

SPEAKING WEEK 2

July 27th - 31st

CURRICULUM

The workshop will work with students on developing a variety of skills and gaining topic area expertise in various subjects.

By the end of each week, students will have participated in three major projects:

1. Written at least one article or speech arguing for and defending their opinion on any current issue
2. Participated in daily discussions and activities on a different major current event every day
3. Participated in a Leaders 4SC Conference activity, where they role-play as business, government, or non-profit leaders to solve a national or global issue that the group chooses together (optional).
